

Islip, NY – Islip Town Councilwoman Trish Bergin Weichbrodt recently joined Lindy's Taxi operations manager Frank Paolino to announce free transportation home for any military personnel landing at MacArthur Airport from Veterans Day through the end of the year.

Lindy's taxi will even pick up family members who are unable to drive at their home and take them to meet their military loved one at the airport.

Frank Paolino served as a Sergeant, Special Forces in the U.S. Army and was wounded while serving in Vietnam. He retired from the Army and is now the operations manager for Lindy's Taxi.

"We love our Troops, we love our Country and we love doing business in the Town of Islip," said Paolino.

"This is our way of saying thank you to our community and to our Veterans who deserve a warm welcome home after spending months away from their families," said Councilwoman Trish Bergin Weichbrodt, "I'm happy that Islip's MacArthur Airport is able to be a part of this effort."
